GOP HANDSHAKING TOUR - James Moye, Republican candidate for 5th District Congressman in November general election, greets Faye Monti at Beach Drug during GOP handshaking tour of Bay-Waveland Friday. Operating budget up for county schools

Hancock County School system operating expenses for 1966-67 are up $39,939 over last year's figures. Budgeting for a total of $473,280, including a $91,000 proposed increase for school buses, the system's main increase is in teachers' salaries.

Other budgeted items include $22,650, administrative salaries, $263,789, teachers salaries, guidance personnel, librarians, clerical and clerical help, maintenance, audio-visual aids and teaching supplies, $99,700, transportation, including the $91,000 proposed bus replacement expense, $34,940, plant operation, including cafeteria, contracted services, heat, utilities, supplies and miscellaneous.

Under maintenance of plants $23,410 is budgeted for salaries, contracted services, replacement of equipment and other expenses; and under fixed charges, such as social security, retirement plan contributions, insurance and so on, $26,881. Student body activities are allowed for to the extent of $4,750.

Using the new budget reporting system for the first time, the completed form shows a balanced figure of $818,350. This includes amounts outstanding on old building bond issues, money for site improvement, instructional and non-instructional equipment, debt service from current funds, tuition paid for students receiving instruction outside the county system and cash balances.

fering from physical or health problems. Trimming delays further, Blalock said all bus stops shall be at .2 miles apart and stopping in unusually unsafe and hazardous loading and unloading places is prohibited.

State law calls for a maximum walking distance of one mile to a school bus stop. "Even with the existing half mile rule in effect we are offering service that is twice as good as the state demands," Blalock said.

As for student behavior, the new regulations state, "Pupils shall behave properly on a school bus. No profane or immoral language shall be tolerated. Pupils shall not be disrespectful to the driver and if they persist in improper behavior, the central superintendent, principal, or transportation supervisor shall have the right to deny to any such disobedient pupil the privilege of transportation. "Pupils who abuse or damage school buses may be suspended or expelled from school and their parents or guardians are liable for damage."

Blalock, said this is in accordance with Sec. 6221, Mississippi Code of 1942.

Westwego firm gets dredge job

Saba Dredging Co., Inc., of Westwego, La., has been awarded a $9,386 contract to dredge a small-craft channel across the bar at the mouth of Bayou Caddy, the U.S. Corps of Engineers at Mobile has announced.

The bar was formed by Hurricane Betty last year. The channel will be dredged to a depth of 6 feet below mean low tide over a bottom width of 80 from the 6-foot depth in the Mississippi Sound to the mouth of the bayou and a short distance upstream. This is about 2,700 feet in all. Two more feet of overdepth will be allowed for inaccuracies in the dredging process.

vision to give instructions. Until persons hear from his CD staff there is nothing to worry about, Favre declared. "We will not leave anything until the last minute."

County emergency telephone numbers are 467-5101 and 467-4425. Favre said county school buses would be used in any mass evacuation and arrangements have been made for them to be on stand-by in the event of hurricane threat.

choices but to build in areas below the state water level since the northwest part of the county was taken over by NASA and New Orleans. Even growth is encroaching here, Supervisor announced, but such an encroachment would be feasible either economically or because of the amount of low land.

On the motion of Supervisor H.G. Dean of Beat 1, Charter Favre was named full-time county civil defense director at a salary of $150. Favre has had the title about 18 months and complained that lack of funds have prevented him from carrying up a working organization. If there were an active civil defense in the county, matching funds could have paid half the bill for three new two-way radios for the director's office, he noted.

Dean suggested civil defense might provide a shelter in the evacuation area which could double as a gymnasium for the new elementary school there. The federal government also may pay half Favre's salary. R.G. Hubbard, Jr., board president, said Favre would have to give up one of his two current county jobs if he were to go full-time on civil defense. Favre said he would resign as prison guard since that requires him to be available 24 hours a day but he would continue as Courthouse janitor.

Federal agents to question man arrested here

A 30-year-old Mobile, Ala. man, wanted by officers for car theft, armed robbery and for questioning in a murder case, was arrested Sunday night by City Police Chief Lathan Garriga on a charge of driving while intoxicated.

Carl Stapleton was picked up at 10:30 p.m. at the corner of Ulman Avenue and US 90 and jailed. Garriga is now awaiting the arrival of an agent from the Federal Bureau of Investigation for further action.

Hearing for a 13-year-old boy arrested Sept. 23, by Garriga, was Friday in Youth Court of Michael D. Hays. The juvenile, charged with vandalism of the office, library and three classrooms and theft at North Bay Elementary School, was sent to Columbia Training Institute. He will be confined there until such time as officials consider him sufficiently rehabilitated to return home.

7 ordained Auxiliary in Sunday ceremonies

Veterans from Gulfport Auxiliary were entertained last Tuesday by members of American Legion Auxiliary. The seven who, in the ceremony, were ordained by Bishop Joseph B. Brundage, were: Mrs. Mary Lou, Mrs. Mary Lou, Mrs. Mary Lou, Mrs. Mary Lou, Mrs. Mary Lou, Mrs. Mary Lou, Mrs. Mary Lou.

At the same time, four other members received minor orders of Exorcist and Acolyte. The seven who, in the ceremony, were ordained by Bishop Joseph B. Brundage, were: Mrs. Mary Lou, Mrs. Mary Lou, Mrs. Mary Lou, Mrs. Mary Lou, Mrs. Mary Lou, Mrs. Mary Lou, Mrs. Mary Lou.

Department notified the town it will let bids on this section and will wait for the reply before going into the matter further.

Council received until next Tuesday to get specifications from B.M. Dornblatt and Associates, its consulting engineer, for relocation of the natural gas line in the vicinity of proposed ramp and interchange on Interstate 10 at Rte. 603 and 43. The State Highway Department notified the town it will let bids on this section Oct. 25 and the pipe must be adjusted.

After Clerk C.O. DuFour suggested the present town ordinance on pipe in obsolete with the new term of the contract, the board suggested Donald Landry, town building inspector, prepare necessary specifications and drawings to advise prospective pier builders what they must do. It is understood that the pier must now provide a passage way for equipment maintaining the pier.

Aldermen also considered whose responsibility it will be to maintain the pier and whether the county board of supervisors will handle the whole situation. Longo proposed that the town at an early date push for parking bays on the beach road in anticipation of more automobile traffic with the pier. Otherwise, he observed, there may be protest from householder on the beach about the parking.

Civil Defense Director William Schaeffer was authorized to accept a 10th Section lease was referred to the board's attorney.

School in Pearlport was opened by Robert F. LeDuc, Jr., county superintendent, Charles Hill, and a teacher, equipped guests would gather in the school when all equipment is in place and the day was fixed.

Wagner presented monthly payment request from Ray Anderson, Jr., general contractor, and Sutor Wall Works, and also new item. Anderson's bill for $77,904.92 left a balance due him of $72,207.94 out of a contract of $499,833 and indicated the completion date for all projects. Sutor's bill of $2,939 leaves a balance due him of $3,473 out of a total of $12,345.63. Sutor's original bid was for $11,697.63 but $448 worth of additional footage necessary at Pearlport accounted for the difference.

At a premium over $700 annually, LeDuc reported placement of insurance on the Pearlport unit covering up to 90 per cent of total value. On the odd item, Wagner asked trustees to consider paying a bill for $336 from his consulting engineer for planning conversation of Gulfview School from natural gas to LP gas. Original plan called for natural gas when United Gas Co., said they intended to service the area. Later revisions by United altered this for now and conversion became necessary.

Trustees agreed they had instructed Wagner to make the change and felt they were morally obligated for the bill although LeDuc was a little concerned over building funds available. The matter was postponed pending receipt of a statement of savings realized in the conversion from non-installation of gas feed piping from the roadway to the school.

Block was authorized to engage additional secretarial help at his school if funds are available. The north county superintendent, now also doubling

Best Second fiscal '66 $8,425.15 in the hole. This figure, however, was not reconciled against the bank balance.

Supervisor Dolph Keller of Boat 2 complained that the 10-cent a gallon hike in diesel fuel prices under recent legislation was costing the county $100 a day. He had checked with the state comptroller's office and been informed the boats would have to keep separate tanks to qualify for separate rates which does not use the roads. As for as Keller can figure, only his front end loader at the pit would qualify for an exemption anyhow.

The Boat 2 supervisor also questioned companies under contract at Mississippi Test Facility being exempt from buying Mississippi auto licenses. He cited Harris Detective Agency in particular.

Joe L. Duckworth of Pearlport, president of the hospital board, appeared later complaining about the prevalence of out of state tags where children in the public schools are concerned.

Keller observed that some people are living here temporarily and are exempt. Duckworth countered that requirements should be changed to people with children in the public schools paid something. It was decided to check into the law to see what steps might be taken.

A request was received from the North Hancock Lions Club asking for a public health center in the north part of the county. Supervisors noted there already is one in the county and another could not be established.

A $50 advertisement was authorized in the Shrimp Bowl Classic program and premiums approved on bonds for two port and harbor commissioners—Edward Schambach from Trust Insurance and Joseph V. Colson from Scaffold Insurance. Payment was approved to the forestry commission of $773.09 for work on 16th Section land.

On the petition of property owners on either side of Arnold Street between Old Spanish Trail and Nicholson Avenue, it was agreed to vacate that portion of the street.

Transfer was approved of Chris Lusich's 16th Section sub-division lease at Pearlport to Mr. and Mrs. Martin.

Fish, game, conservation groups argue US 90 line

Boundaries set in 1954 by the now defunct Mississippi Seafood Commission are unrealistic according to Mississippi Marine Conservation Commission.

The commission, at their Monday session in Biloxi, said the state game and fish commission is exercising unfair territorial jurisdiction in the three coast counties.

The reaction came after a letter from Billy Joe Crook, executive director of the game and fish commission was read. The letter stated his agency did not wish to change present jurisdictional boundaries.

Under the present system, the game and fish commission has the authority to require licenses to be purchased before fishing in all salt or brackish waters north of US 90. No license is required for fishing south of the highway.

The conservation group had asked for an alteration of this ruling in mid-September and the letter was in answer to that request.

Charles E. Weems, chairman, said they had been working on the matter for the past six years without success.

Sam Fawcett, commission attorney, said the ordinance of the defunct group is still binding.

Commissioners felt the only true reason for the fish and game group's determination to hold onto the disputed area is for revenue purposes.

"They just don't care to change and apparently they have the upper hand," said William J. Demoran, the commission's marine biologist.

Demoran said the salinity samplings and marine collections over a number of years show that the line should be

Two another gay weekend all along the Hancock County and of the Gulf Coast. Not his new holiday has been invented, and it's much too early for Thanksgiving or Christmas celebrating, but as we've explained many, many times for the benefit of out-of-town readers, it takes little or no money for partying in these parts.

Friday afternoon the meeting of the board, meeting the card to now one cold beach from Clearmont Harbor to part Waveland city limits occurred, was certainly noted in a set of traditional champagne ritual. . . . the program, produced by Beverly Glass, was not broken upon the arrival, but much more practically, absorbed by those who were fortunate enough to be in that place at the right time. Lucille Lynch and Elaine Colton were among the lucky ones.

When a nor-wester is welcome

And Saturday Coleman Avenue was almost as bustling as on the Fourth of July. Why? The first nor-wester of the season blew blusteringly in, and naturally everybody had to get out and enjoy the first brisk breeze. (Note: Waveland is all of those names. Ivers will still be joyous over a nor-wester, come about February?)

Late on our report about the most recent St. Clair's parish ball dance which took place on Saturday, Sept. 24. Luckily no one insisted upon buying the tickets we offered, due to a typo, for one $1. instead of $4. per couple, and Lester Hovarty noted he'd call come at that price if anyone brought up the subject. Although the crowd was much smaller than usual, no many who would have gone were instead at the table for the very popular late Charleston. Loder, Thos who made the dance had a wonderful time. Some were Lucille and Joe Wynmar, her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Manning, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Benigno, of Pass Christian; Mary and Gray Wade, Cleo and Joe Smith, Phyllis and Steve Farley, Elmore and Bob Whitson, Jim St. Clair, (he's president of Acro-Peck Corp.), Jeanne and Jim Snook, the Fred Bonner, Chris and Bob Aldin, Shirley and Hank Stockman, Garri and Charlie Johnson and Salma and Chuck Rone.

With the traveling set

Joyce and John Jacob are displaying breezy tan upon returning from their vacation, which included a fishing trip in the Louisiana marshes; a gay day in the Crescent City and another in Biloxi and environs.

Cap and Henry Capadon are also recently returned travelers, having spent seven weeks in Tama and California. Elsie Mae and W.L. Higgins and family enjoyed their parents, (Cap and Henry, of course) when they were in San Antonio, and Gloria and Chuck Bolin and children were their hosts in Cupertino, California.

Nancy Cox and newest daughter, Nancy Hamilton, not Lisa, as Lucien had told us. . . (but it really wasn't his fault; Nancy made the change after the little one was born on Sept. 25, just two days before her own birthday, the 27th); were released from the hospital Sunday and arrived home that afternoon.

Kitty and Otto Mullere are enthusiastic in fact they're co excited over the fact that the clerk to placed to pay them his third visit, the first in over seven years, they forgot to tell us when the baby is due.

It's a boy

Polly Graham, who must be an unreluctant artist at heart, sent a note in an envelope addressed to Polly Peco, the words superimposed over a very easy pair of eyes. The content to the effect that her grandchild to a little boy, Charles Barrett, Jr., not a granddaughter, as we erroneously stated in the column. . . Sorry about that! The mother to the former Dee Butler, owner and operator of Circle D Stables. Wonder if she'll have Charles Jr., riding at a tender age as Bary Hano first put Cathy on a horse?

She has de-fleed the little muzz, and seven are males. . . she's happy and could will catch at least come of them before they get her out of house and home.

Secondly, Vera (Mrs. Howard) Corver to in just about as unhappy case of mind. . . she's stuck with a little-too-picky which she picked up on the beach a couple of weeks ago, before a dog or cat could make a meal out of the grounded one. she had found a small white puppy with rather large feet. . . if it's yours, please give her a ring.

Barbara (Mrs. Tommy Ray) Bourgeois cut her birthday cake on Sunday, Sept. 11.

Nell (Mrs. Eddie) Bourgeois writes from Homer that she, Eddie and Mike Arde have just moved into their new home. The family spent last weekend in Houston where they took in the Acro-Giant baseball game and the LSU-Rice game among other diversions. She adds that they won't be able to return to Waveland for a couple of weeks as Arde is still under treatment for a severe bump on the head. He received the bump, actually a small blood clot, when he lost control of a go-cart and tumbled into the bumper of his parent's automobile.

Gazooks-a ghost

Harold Zimmerman is a pretty big man, but we've an idea he'll be very happy when wife, Nona, returns from her visit to their son in California.
Harold has been bawling it, and come awfully peculiar things have been happening in the 'empty' house. First, his tooth brush just disappeared and he hasn't been able to find it, despite an extensive search.
The second incident, a vanishing alarm clock. It went off early one a.m., he turned it off and when he looked for it to eat it that night, no alarm clock.
He then heard something ticking so loudly he had to get out of bed, finally finding it right smack in the middle of the floor, under the bed!

Wary traveler

Barbara Bourgeois feels that she'd best not press her luck after all that happened on her first trip over outside of her native state. While enroute via Nashville, Tenn., by rail, to meet her husband, Richard, who is doing a job for Tennessee Gas in Franklin, Ky., and as there had been a derailment in Birmingham resulting through Chattanooga, the train, without warning, suddenly screamed to a halt, tossing everyone all over the coach. The engine had broken loose from the rest of the train! After that she really enjoyed herself. ... they saw all the sights, including talking in the Grand Ole Opry.
The night before she was to leave Franklin, where they were staying in a motel, she went to the office to purchase a soft drink for little Richard, who accompanied her on the trip. Exactly one minute after she had walked out of the door, two hold-up men appeared, guns in hand, and forced the owners of the motel, a Mr. and Mrs.
Harrison, to lie on the floor while they took everything they could carry away with them, including $10 in cash from a hapless customer, who wandered in to buy a pack of cigarettes.

Latest on gout

everything, Maj. John Mc-Closkey, sent most interesting item saying that there is now a theory that come forms of gout may be directly attributed to excessive consumption of moonshine whiskey at a tender age.
Somehow the clipping was 'lost'
... and as so many we know do suffer from this ailment, and have put away at least their share of the unlicensed hooch, we have a pretty good idea who 'fired' it in the trash.

Philharmonic to appear in Bay for third year

The New Orleans Philharmonic Orchestra is once again making its debut in the Bay area, this time at the Bay High School. The orchestra has been performing in the Bay area for the last three years.

This year's appearances are scheduled for Nov. 7 at Bay High School. An afternoon performance will be rendered for elementary and junior high school pupils and the evening concert reserved for high school students and adults.

Future plans occupied board members of City-County Memorial Library last Monday meeting at the home of Mrs. E.C. Samuel.

Mrs. T.A. Humphries, librarian, reported books are being purchased on a regular basis and said a speaker would be available for any organization during the month of October.

Others in attendance were Mrs. Robert Hamilton, William Hilliker, James Robert Gleason, Stanton, Lloyd Griffith, Gordon Romanoff.

The project is sponsored by the Coast Area Congress, a group of people formed three years ago, as part of their program to bring good music to the coast.

Surprise party
Ernest Strong, with assistance from Carmela Pless and Ruby Thomas, surprised wife Rena with a birthday party Saturday night at their Sycamore Street home.

After the party came a lovely gift, including a very chic dress and white coat from Ernest, everyone called down to enjoy a leg of beer, other Miquis, boiled shrimp, dips, in fact just about every imaginable goodie. Some other guests were Toby Piazza, Arnold Wolfe, Gus Thomas, Agnes and Carl Thomas, Joyce and Fritz Garcia, Lillian and Harold Garcia, Carol Ann and Curtis Thomas.

LaFontaine heads education club
Ronald LaFontaine was elected president when the new Distributive Education Club at Bay High School was organized last Friday.

Georgia Nacaise is vice-president; Margaret Hudson, secretary; Dabbe Cranmer, treasurer, and Carl Thomas, parliamentarian.

The club is to promote distributive education in the school, city and state. A highlight of its activities for the year will be sponsorship of an employer-employee banquet for members' employers in the spring.

They were expecting their first child on Sept. 20. Automobile trouble caused them a delay of one day, but the new one was most cooperative, and waited until Sept. 22, to be born. Little Pamela Ruth weighed in at six pounds, 14 ounces at St. Joseph's Hospital.

SIGHTS AND SOUNDS ALONG THE WAY - Naked ladies shivering, redly in the chill breeze; bright hued woolen garments, replacing bimbos on the seawall; pine needles raining down in a delivery shower and the wall of the wind as it whips around houses searching for a crack in which to enter. THE NEW WAY TO REDUCE AT HOME

What can Figuretone do for YOU? Well, look at your figure. If you're on the "hippy" side, if your waistline needs the control of a tight girdle to stay in line—then Figuretone is for you. Why? Because Figuretone reduces the size of these figure areas. (Does it while you REST... RELAX... at home?)

How does it work? Your hips and waist are "held-in" by muscles that form a sort of "natural girdle". If we are not active, this girdle "stretches out of shape". Figuretone's easy muscle contraction tones these muscles, causing this "natural girdle" to hold-you-in more.

It's as simple as that!

Rebel aerial bombs blast Tiger hopes

Harrison Central's Red Rebels clicked with a 30-yard tie-breaking desperation pass with less than two minutes to go in the game to beat Bay High, 20-14, Friday night in a conference game played at Long Beach.

The Tigers' aerial offense never got off the ground. Failing to make a completion in eight tries, they played most of the game on the ground gaining 208 yards rushing, to 136 for the Rebels, but the Rebels picked up 134 yards in the air while the Tigers got none.

Bay High had a golden opportunity to pull the game out of the fire in the closing minutes when they ran the ball deep in Harrison territory and got a first down when a Rebel intercepted a pass. The play was called back however and Harrison penalized 15 yards. The Tigers were unable to score before the final horn.

The loss broke the Tigers' three-game winning streak and they are now 3-2 for the season, the Red Rebels 2-3.

A bad punt by the Tigers set up Harrison Central's touchdown in the first quarter, the kick going out of bounds on the Tiger 40. On three good runs the Rebels moved the ball to the Tiger 18 from where Louis Saucier scored on an brilliant run down the sideline.

Bay High evened the score at 7-7 in the second period on a sustained drive from their own 40 using running plays to good advantage. Alex Romanoff carried over from the three and kicked the extra point but the Rebels took the kick-off and in five plays had scored again.

Bay High turned the tables taking the ensuing kick-off going 91 yards on the ground, Romanoff and David Necaise doing the running, for the tying score. Necaise went off tackle for six yards and Romanoff's kick from placement was good for the win.

The second half was a defensive battle, neither team being able to score in the third period and each having a corner

SSC fumble ends scoring threat

Despite a rain-soaked field, St. Stanislaus took to the air, completing 15 of 31 passes but lost 13-0 to a tough, hard-running St. Paul eleven Tuesday night at Covington, La.

The Rockchaws threatened only once when they got to St. Paul's eleven yard line but a fumble, the only one of the evening recovered by St. Paul, ended the march.

A 55-yard run around left end accounted for the winner's first touchdown late in the second quarter and a handoff and run through the middle for 59 yards in the last quarter resulted in their final tally.

The Rocks have a 3-2 record for the season and will be at home this Friday night to St. Bernard, La., High.

Miller leads McNeese State to top billing

Frank Miller, a Lamar Lumbkin protégé, scored McNeese State's only touchdown Saturday as the Cowboys beat Louisiana Tech, 10-7, to go into a three-way tie for top spot in the Gulf States Conference.

Miller, center and end Bay St. Louis native, hauled in a 65-yard pass from quarterback David Bourgeois. David Pocha booted the extra point and a field goal to give the Pacha a 10-0 lead. Tech rallied in the fourth quarter holding McNeese scoreless while scoring 7. It was the first time McNeese had beaten Tech on their home field.

Miller is top man on his team in pass receiving yardage. He has caught only two passes but they covered 107 yards and produced two touchdowns.

This Saturday McNeese travels to Arlington, Tex., for a non-conference game. Coach Jim Clark's Cowboys are 2-1 overall and are tied with Northwestern State and Southwestern Louisiana for the loop lead.
